1. The shipyard at Glogow (Glogau) (052/877), formerly repaired ships and barges. The shipyard is now not accepting any more ships for repair; two unfinished repair jobs are being rushed to completion.
2. The army has taken over the shipyard which is being expanded considerably. Bulldozers and steam shovels are levelling more ground, and new larger buildings are being erected.
3. Recently three armored landing craft were brought to the shipyard. According to an employee of the yard, armored landing craft which are uncommonly large, at least by Polish standards, are being constructed at the shipyard.
